The Naturalist Desk.

The Naturalist is our mid-range desk for those naturalist out there who want to be nurtured by nature's beauty! Work from this desk and you will feel like you have been transported into the beautiful English countryside. All you need now is a blanket, a couple of glasses and a bottle opener!...

"For those people who love the natural things in life!"

Naturalist Desktop.

The Naturalist desktop is made from woodgrain reproduction laminates and decorative faced boards. Each woodgrain as been carefully chosen for its unique authentic character and colour grain.

Here the crackling of the campfire and the birds tweeting as you start work for the day...!
